

Art for Recovery® at UCSF Comprehensive Cancer Center

presents...

"The Way of Constant Grace"

A dramatic reading of letters exchanged between UCSF medical and nursing students and adults coping with life-threatening illness.

"I feel blessed, having been given this right to wear the white coat." Lillian, medical student

Art for Recovery® invites you to

"The Way of Constant Grace"

a dramatic reading of letters exchanged between adults from UCSF Medical Center coping with illness and UCSF medical and nursing school students.

Tuesday, June 20, 2006

7:00 p.m.

UCSF Millberry Conference Center

Golden Gate Room

500 Parnassus Ave

San Francisco

This performance is free of charge
Donations to Art for Recovery® appreciated.

For Information please call Cindy Perlis at 415.885.7221
Visit the Art for Recovery website at <http://cancer.ucsf.edu/afr>

This project is generously supported by Mount Zion Health Fund, The Nathan Cummings Foundation, The Lloyd Symington Foundation, UCSF Comprehensive Cancer Center, The Auxiliary at UCSF Mount Zion Medical Center, and Brandeis Hillel Day School.

Firefly Project Creator:
Cindy Perlis

Director:
Lisa Tromovitch

Script Consultant:
Pat McClelland

"I strongly believe we are all connected in a deep way by this mysterious thing called life." Hadley, medical student

University of California
San Francisco
UCSF
Comprehensive Cancer Center

#4256

Art for Recovery®

UCSF - Box 1712

1600 Divisadero Street

San Francisco, California 94115

Postcard Design by Jennifer Melnick of Olio Arts